ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

University Overview: Ganja State University (GSU), located in Ganja, Azerbaijan, is a public, non-profit higher education institution with a history that traces back to 1938. Originally established as a two-year pedagogical institute named after Nadezhda Krupskaya, the university began its path with just 244 students on October 1, 1938. Over the years, it evolved into a full-fledged four-year college and eventually became Ganja State University, expanding its academic offerings across multiple disciplines. Today, GSU is a recognized institution in the Caucasus region, contributing to regional education and research. The university is a member of several international academic networks, including the European University...
