ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Overview Jahurul Islam Medical College is a public institution in Bangladesh, established in 1992. For Indian students seeking an international medical education, it offers a comprehensive MBBS program conducted entirely in English. The course duration is 6 years, and the college is supported by its own teaching hospital, providing students with the necessary clinical exposure required for medical training. Admissions typically take place during the June-July intake window. Fees & Cost The total cost for the program is 33,600 USD. In addition to the tuition and academic expenses, students should budget for accommodation; the annual hostel fee is 500 USD. When planning your finances, it is important to consider these costs alongside personal living...
