ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Overview Peking University Health Science Center is a public institution in China with a long history, having been established in 1898. For Indian students seeking an international medical education, this centre offers a 6-year MBBS programme conducted in English. A key advantage for students is the availability of a teaching hospital, which provides the necessary clinical environment for practical medical training. The academic cycle typically begins with an intake in September. Fees & Cost Studying at Peking University Health Science Center requires a significant financial commitment. The annual tuition fee for the MBBS programme is 30,000 USD, which is approximately Rs 25.5 lakh per year. In addition to tuition, students must account for...
