ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

University Overview: Qingdao University Medical College Qingdao University Medical College, established in 1909, is one of China's oldest and most respected medical institutions. Originally founded as Qingdao Medical College, it became a part of the larger Qingdao University in 1993 after a merger with several other colleges, including the former Qingdao Teachers' College and Shandong Textile Engineering Institute. Today, it operates as a key component of Qingdao University, a public university recognized by the National Medical Commission (NMC), World Health Organization (WHO), FAIMER, and ECFMG—making its MBBS degree valid for global medical licensing exams such as FMGE (India), USMLE (USA), and PLAB (UK). With a legacy spanning over a century,...
