ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Overview The University of Naples Federico II is a public institution located in Italy. For Indian students seeking an international medical education, this university offers an MBBS program with a duration of 6 years. A significant advantage for international applicants is that the medium of instruction is English, which removes the immediate need to learn a new language to follow the medical curriculum. Recognition & FMGE When choosing a medical university abroad, understanding the regulatory landscape is critical for Indian graduates. It is important to note that the University of Naples Federico II is not currently NMC approved, nor is it listed with the WHO/WDOMS or FAIMER. Additionally, it is not eligible for the ECFMG/USMLE pathway. For any...
